Participants are encouraged to bring their own bible.

Mother Susan will lead three sessions exploring the stories of women in the bible. Interspersed throughout the day will be Quiet Times where attendees will have opportunities to pray, study, participate in Stations of the Cross or other optional activities. This is a wonderful opportunity to spend time during the Lenten season meeting others on our journey of faith as well as in private communication with God.

Come and celebrate our ministry as laywomen in the Body of Christ, the Church.

If you have additional questions about the retreat, contact Bonnie Chambers at (717) 838-4416 or bchambers242@comcast.net.

Daughters of the King is an order of Christian women who take a vow of prayer and service with chapters in the Episcopal, Roman Catholic, Anglican, Evangelical Lutheran Church of America and the Moravian churches. It is a relatively new addition to Central Pennsylvania, with the first chapter formed in the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania in 2004. There are currently active chapters in State College, Gettysburg, Hanover and Harrisburg and we meet as a diocese twice a year to pray, worship and for spiritual formation.
