

Sister Barbara Jean (BJ)

Sister BJ, as she is known, is the co-founder of an Episcopal religious community called Anamchara Fellowship. She attends St. James Episcopal Church, Millcreek, in Wilmington, DE. She is also the Executive Director of the Interfaith Resource Center, a lending library serving all of Delaware and Eastern Shore, Maryland. She holds a BS in Theology from Marian College, Fond du Lac, WI and a Masters diploma in Celtic Christianity from The University of Wales, Lampeter.

Sister BJ has been an Episcopal Religious for 40 years. Her ministry over these years has ranged from parish and diocesan ministry for Children and Youth; being a retreat and conference leader; as well as being a traveling preacher/teacher and a spiritual director. Her favorite ministry among all of these things has been leading Pilgrimage groups to the UK and Ireland. She will be leading her next Pilgrimage to the south eastern part of England this coming May (May 1-11, 2015). If you are interested in joining her on this excursion, please be sure to make yourself known.
